

I oppose the facilitation of federal eavesdropping on VOIP and all other private communication because of the potential for abuse by government agents that are not subject to the discipline of the electoral process and may often little or simply inappropriate supervision.